Day 4 |

At Chitwan. Full Day Engage in Various Jungle Activities.

After breakfast, you will continue your jungle adventure with a full day of activities. You will go on a canoe ride down the Rapti River, where you can observe various species of birds, crocodiles, and other wildlife. You will also have the opportunity to go on a jeep safari to explore the jungle and see animals such as one-horned rhinoceroses, Bengal tigers, and sloth bears.

Canoe Safari: A canoe ride is an excellent way to enjoy the unique eco system around the rivers and floodplains. Muger crocodiles and Gharials basking on banks, storks, ducks, kingfishers along with otters, turtles and if lucky, even a fishing cat, are some of the creatures to watch out for. The comfortable wooden oar boats glide noiselessly, maneuvered by expert oarsmen while naturalists explain the world around the water. The boats are equipped with life jackets and the boatmen are expert swimmers who also act as life guards.

Bird Watching: Chitwan is rightly considered a birdwatchers' paradise. Exotic birds such as the highly endangered Bengal florican and the glorious paradise flycatcher, as well as a range of colorful sunbirds, kingfishers and jungle fowl, call this forest their home.

Jeep Safari/Safari Drives: Safari drives are conducted by expert naturalists in specially designed 4X4 vehicles with theatre style seating. Along with the thrill of tiger tracking, is a memorable stop for a picnic breakfast. The dense jungles of Chitwan have large stretches of Sal with a closed canopy. A safari drive through these patches, with trees towering above and beams of sunlight breaking through the thick canopy is an enchanting experience. Seated in a specially designed safari vehicle, guests drive around the jungle, accompanied by a trained naturalist and an experienced tracker from the local community. The one horned Rhinoceros is the star of Chitwan and are usually spotted in open woods and grasslands. Along with mammals, the forest has 56 species of reptiles and amphibians, the most commonly spotted ones being the monitor lizards and pythons.

At Chitwan. Full Day Engage in Various Jungle Activities.

After breakfast, you will embark on an exciting day filled with immersive jungle activities, starting with a visit to the Elephant Breeding Center, where you will learn about the conservation efforts and daily care of these magnificent animals. Next, you will explore the traditional Tharu Village, offering a fascinating insight into the unique culture, lifestyle, and customs of the indigenous Tharu people. As the day progresses, you will be captivated by the vibrant Tharu Cultural Dance, a lively performance that beautifully showcases their rich heritage through music and movement. To conclude the day, a guided jungle walk will take you deep into the lush wilderness, providing an opportunity to observe diverse flora and fauna while learning about the region's incredible biodiversity from experienced naturalists.

Elephant Breeding Center Tour

The Elephant Breeding Center, located in Sauraha, Chitwan, offers a unique opportunity to observe and learn about the conservation and breeding of the endangered Asian elephants. Established to protect and increase the elephant population in Nepal, the center provides insight into the care and training of these gentle giants. Visitors can witness the daily routines of elephants, including feeding and interactions between mothers and their calves. The knowledgeable staff at the center share valuable information about the challenges of elephant conservation and the efforts being made to ensure their well-being.

Tharu Village Tour

A Tharu Village tour offers a fascinating glimpse into the rich cultural heritage and traditional lifestyle of the indigenous Tharu community of the Terai region. Walking through the village, visitors can observe traditional Tharu homes made of mud and thatch, experience their unique way of life, and interact with the friendly locals. The tour provides insights into their age-old customs, agricultural practices, and crafts, such as basket weaving and pottery. This immersive experience allows travelers to appreciate the harmony in which the Tharu people live with nature, preserving their customs and traditions for generations.

Tharu Cultural Dance

The Tharu cultural dance is a vibrant and energetic performance that showcases the rich traditions and folklore of the Tharu community. Performed in the evening around a warm bonfire, the dancers, dressed in colorful traditional attire, move to the rhythmic beats of drums and folk instruments. Each dance tells a story, often related to nature, wildlife, or daily village life, offering a deep connection to their culture and history. The performance is both entertaining and educational, giving visitors a chance to appreciate the Tharu people's deep-rooted connection with their surroundings through music and movement.

Guided Jungle Walk

A guided jungle walk in Chitwan National Park provides an up-close and personal encounter with the region's diverse flora and fauna. Led by experienced naturalists, the walk takes you through lush forests, grasslands, and wetlands, offering opportunities to spot wildlife such as deer, rhinos, monkeys, and a variety of bird species. The guide shares knowledge about the park's rich biodiversity, tracking techniques, and the delicate balance of the ecosystem. This eco-friendly adventure allows visitors to connect with nature while ensuring minimal impact on the environment, making it an unforgettable wilderness experience. In the evening, you will enjoy specialty dinner and enjoy at your hotel for the night.

Day 8 |

At Bardiya. Bardiya National Park River and Jeep Safari

Rhino in Bardiya National Park

Deer in Bardiya National Park

After breakfast, prepare for a river safari in the Karnali river. Cruising on the wide expanse of the river, pockets of rapids propel the boats along as gentle waves lap at the sides. Sitting inside a hand - carved boat, keep your eyes peeled for a variety of birdlife and wildlife. Top of the list is the endangered fish - eating Gharial crocodile and its more sinister relative, the Marsh Mugger.

A Nepali - style lunch will be served back at the Lodge; after which you might want to head to the hammock with your book for relaxation. In the late afternoon, when the weather is cooler and the animals become active, meet with our naturalist for a jeep safari in the national park. Explore nature in the comfort and convenience of one of our classic vintage Land Rover. During the safari you will encounter wildlife such as different species of deer, birds, monkeys, and the endangered one - horned rhinoceros. Tigers in Bardiya National Park

Bird in Bardiya National Park

Wake up early and prepare for the day's adventures with a hearty breakfast. Then strap on your walking boots, take a sturdy bamboo walking stick and prepare for a day of pure exploration and excitement! There will be a premade lunch ready along with refreshments to keep you going through the day. A Land Rover will take you to the National Park Entrance and in to the very heart of the national park. Your day will be spent in the Land Rover and on foot scouting out the undergrowth for those elusive big cats.

Walk down a jungle path by the Sal trees, listen out for the sounds of orioles and hornbills to one of the many "hides", where patience is a key, as you settled own with a cup of tea and wait for any movement, maybe a rhino, maybe a jungle cat... maybe something else! After the hide, jump back in the Land Rover and allow the guide to give you a tour of the parts of the jungle. See a varied range of not only different kinds of habitats but of wildlife also. By now your finger will be worn out from all of the clicking and photo taking but keep it strong- early evening around dusk is a great time for spotting leopard and other big cats. Keep an eye out during your trip for the claw marks on trees left by tigers who were sharpening their claws and marking their territory. Stop for a drink from the cool box, soak up the last of the rays bursting their way through the canopy as you head back to the lodge. This is the last chance to scan for glimpse of a Sloth bear or Wild boar. Back at the lodge, kick off the walking boots, and put your feet up before dinner is served.
