Day 2 |

Sightseeing of Pashupatinath Temple & Boudhanath Stupa.

Optional Activity: [\[Breakfast with Everest / Heli tour to EBC from Kathmandu\]](#)

Everest for breakfast is once-in-a-lifetime experience and we believe, it is the most amazing as compared to any other trip in the world. Breakfast with Everest is a special tour designed for people who don't have time to go on a long trek to Everest. Program of about 3 hours can be adjusted with your Nepal tour in one of the mornings.

This tour starts from Kathmandu airport early in the morning and takes you to Lukla in the Everest region in approx. 45minute where we stop for refueling and fly to Syangboche (3880m) where there is Everest View Hotel. The theme is 'You see Everest and it will see you having breakfast'. You will be offered a breakfast with spectacular views of Mount Everest Mountains above 8000m, Amadablam, Lhotse, Makalu, Thamserku etc.

The Heli tour itself is a great experience as you can see some of the highest mountains on earth in a matter of an hour, in close proximity. The Chartered Helicopter flies over the terraced fields to Lukla, and drop off your extra fuel for the flight back to Kathmandu. This is one of the best ways to get closer to Everest as it requires less time and effort for the best breakfast you will ever have in your life!

Optional Activity: Scenic Mountain flight: Embark on an extraordinary aerial adventure with our Mountain Flight over the Himalayas, a journey that promises awe-inspiring views of the world's most majestic peaks. This thrilling experience takes you above the towering summits of the Himalayan range, providing a unique and unparalleled perspective of their grandeur. As you board the aircraft, anticipation builds for the breathtaking vistas that await. The surreal landscape unfolds below, revealing glaciers, deep valleys, and pristine mountain lakes. Whether you're a mountaineer, nature enthusiast, or simply seeking a once-in-a-lifetime experience, our Mountain Flight over the Himalayas ensures an unforgettable journey into the heart of this awe-inspiring mountain range.

After breakfast, we'll visit Pashupatinath Temple, one of the most significant Hindu temples in the world, located on the banks of the Bagmati River. Here, we'll witness Hindu rituals and cremation ceremonies, which take place on the banks of the river.

Next, you will visit Boudhanath Stupa, also known as Khasti Chaitya, another UNESCO World Heritage Site, located about 11km from the center and northeaster outskirts of Kathmandu. It was built in the 5th century and is surrounded by devotees who whirl prayer wheels 108 times enchanting mantras.

Day 3 |

Sightseeing of Swayambhunath Stupa, Chandragiri Hills & Patan Durbar Square.

After a hearty breakfast at the hotel, guests will commence their exploration of Kathmandu's cultural riches. The morning will be dedicated to visiting the iconic Swayambhunath Stupa, also known as the Monkey Temple due to the large population of monkeys inhabiting the area, it holds significant religious and cultural importance for Buddhists. The stupa is adorned with colorful prayer flags, intricate carvings, and numerous small shrines. Visitors can ascend the steep staircases to reach the main stupa, where they can enjoy panoramic views of Kathmandu Valley.

Next, you will visit Chandragiri Hills which offers various recreational activities such as hiking, paragliding, and picnicking amidst the natural beauty of the surroundings. Spend the day exploring the hill station, taking in the fresh mountain air, and indulging in outdoor adventures. Later in the afternoon, return to Kathmandu and enjoy a leisurely evening at your own pace, perhaps exploring the vibrant streets of Thamel or relaxing at a local cafe.

Finally, you will visit Patan Durbar Square, another UNESCO World Heritage Site, located in the city of Patan (also known as Lalitpur), just south of Kathmandu. Here, you will see the traditional Newari architecture and intricate stone carvings of temples and palaces. You will also experience tibetan singing bowls.

Day 4 |

Drive to Chitwan [180 KM / Approx. 5-6 hours' drive]

After breakfast, you will depart Kathmandu and drive to Chitwan, a journey that takes approximately 5-6 hours. Upon arrival in Chitwan, you will check into your hotel and have a delicious lunch & some time to rest and freshen up.

In the afternoon, you will begin your jungle activities. You have the opportunity to visit a local village and learn about the traditional lifestyle of the Tharu people. In the evening, you will attend a cultural performance featuring traditional Tharu music and dance.

Overnight stay at a hotel in Chitwan.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

Day 5 |

Full Day Engage in Various Jungle Activities

After breakfast, you will continue your jungle adventure with a full day of activities. You will go on a canoe ride down the Rapti River, where you can observe various species of birds, crocodiles, and other wildlife. You will also have the opportunity to go on a jeep safari to explore the jungle and see animals such as one-horned rhinoceroses, Bengal tigers, and sloth bears.

Canoe Safari: A canoe ride is an excellent way to enjoy the unique eco system around the rivers and floodplains. Muger crocodiles and Gharials basking on banks, storks, ducks, kingfishers along with otters, turtles and if lucky, even a fishing cat, are some of the creatures to watch out for. The comfortable wooden oar boats glide noiselessly, maneuvered by expert oarsmen while naturalists explain the world around the water. The boats are equipped with life jackets and the boatmen are expert swimmers who also act as life guards.

Bird Watching: Chitwan is rightly considered a birdwatchers' paradise. Exotic birds such as the highly endangered Bengal florican and the glorious paradise flycatcher, as well as a range of colorful sunbirds, kingfishers and jungle fowl, call this forest their home.

Jeep Safari/Safari Drives: Safari drives are conducted by expert naturalists in specially designed 4X4 vehicles with theatre style seating. Along with the thrill of tiger tracking, is a memorable stop for a picnic breakfast. The dense jungles of Chitwan have large stretches of Sal with a closed canopy. A safari drive through these patches, with trees towering above and beams of sunlight breaking through the thick canopy is an enchanting experience. Seated in a specially designed safari vehicle, guests drive around the jungle, accompanied by a trained naturalist and an experienced tracker from the local community. The one horned Rhinoceros is the star of Chitwan and are usually spotted in open woods and grasslands. Along with mammals, the forest has 56 species of reptiles and amphibians, the most commonly spotted ones being the monitor lizards and pythons.

In the evening, you will enjoy specialty dinner and enjoy at your hotel for the night.
