Day 10 :: Jaipur: Elephant & Jeep ride, tuk-tuk ride, and sightseeing / Breakfast & Dinner.

Step-back in time and enjoy many spellbinding sights to discover the chivalrous Rajput era and its battle-scarred heritage. After Breakfast our expert Jaipur guide will meet you for briefing on your heritage program for the day. We will proceed towards the city outskirts (10 Km drive) and enter the ancient town of Amer that offers remarkable Rajput-Mughal architectures. The picturesque situation of Amer at the mouth of a rocky mountain, in which nestles a lake, has attracted travelers including renowned French botanist Victor Jacque Mont. We will explore UNESCO world heritage site and a must see of Jaipur! The Amber Fortress. Morning at 0830 hrs Elephant ride begins to climb the uphill located fort passing thru the vibrant local life residing inside the fort walls. Built in 16th century by Rajput commander Raja Man Singh I, the fortress offers magnificent hilltop views with an intricate mirror palace and fine blends of Hindu-Rajasthani architecture. Inside we will visit Jai Mandir, a chamber of glittering mirrors, and Shila Devi Temple. Stop by Divan-e-Aam, an 18th-century monument known as the Hall of Public Audience, and its counterpart, Divan-e-Khas, a Mughal- and Rajasthan-style monument known as the Hall of Private Audience.

Afterwards we will drive you to the heart of Jaipur's city-centre. Enroute we will take a photo-stop outside Water Palace - Jal Mahal located in the centre of Man Sagar Lake housing various migratory birds and surrounded by Aravalli Ranges. We will arrive at the Patrika Gates, which are hand-painted in a traditional style showcasing vibrant characteristics of Rajasthan. Each pillar has intricate details and uses a variety of colours which makes it seem like a rainbow walkway. The gate is the entrance to Jawahar Circle Garden and it's perfect symmetry makes for a beautiful photograph. Our tour continues as we will arrive at Astronomical Observatory - Jantar Mantar, begun by Jai Singh II in 1728 that is a collection of bizarre giant architectural astronomical instruments built for measuring the heavens and features the world's largest stone sundial. The name is derived from the Sanskrit yanta mantr, meaning 'instrument of calculation'. Here our expert Guide will teach you how these bizarre instruments work to measure celestial objects.

Next we will reach at the iconic City Palace & Museum of Jaipur. A complex of courtyards, gardens and buildings, the impressive City Palace is right in the centre of the Old City. Built in 1700 AD by King - Raja Jai Singh II, this Palace is a paradise of royal heritage history housing rare galleries from British Raj to the Rajput Era. Its architecture is a fusion of Indian, Mughal, Rajput to European styles. Inside the complex we will explore the Pitam Niwas Chowk, where four glorious gates represent the seasons, from Peacock Gate of autumn, to Lotus Gate of summer. Beyond this chowk (square) is a private palace, the Chandra Mahal, which is still the residence of descendants of the royal family. The Mubarak Mahal, built as a reception centre for visiting dignitaries showcases multi-arched and colonnaded construction by renowned architect Sir Swinton Jacob. Finally The Armoury Room, housing the country's best collection of weapons and ceremonial items elegantly engraved.

Our heritage tour concludes with a Bazaar Walk and Tuk-Tuk Tour thru the ancient street markets of downtown Jaipur Bazaar. Chaos and amusement goes hand-in-hand in these maze-like streets, so feel free to take a photo-stop anywhere or if you fancy shopping for local arts & crafts. These bazaars are known for bangle street - Maniharon ka Rasta, to the 'Chandpol Bazaar' and 'Khazanewalon Ka Rasta' meaning a treasure trove, offering antiques and intricately carved handicrafts out of marble, stone, wood, and other handlooms. Inside bazaar we will arrive at Jaipur's most distinctive landmark, The Palace of Winds - Hawa Mahal. Built in a unique pink-coloured beehive design that is certainly hard to miss. We will witness its 958 intricately designed windows that were built for the Maharanis to witness processions and exploring the city life from a high-rise without being seen.

Before sunset we will return back to Hotel enroute taking a photostop outside the Albert Hall Museum, full of artwork and curios unique to this region. Centrally located in the midst of lush Ram Niwas Gardens of Jaipur, Albert Hall Museum with its intricate interiors is a treat to eyes especially when lit up during the evening with its exterior, passages and corridors illuminated with glorious colourful lighting.

Day 11 :: Jaipur —Delhi /
